“Live or on-screen, no-one engages an audience like JMAC!”

Justine McInerney, better known as JMAC, is one of a kind, and as a sexy female comedian she's making waves (really sexy ones).

She's opened for the likes of Hung Le, Hannah Gadsby, Brad Oakes and Chris Wainhouse. Having played at various venues from The Comic's Lounge, Melbourne to Friend in Hand, Sydney.

Stay tuned for the Australian Premiere of JMAC: Proactively Awkward, which will be debuting in the 2012 Melbourne International Comedy Festival.

Currently, JMAC is the co-host for the Melbourne Renegades cricket team in the KFC T20 Big Bash League with Glen Moriarty.

Recently she MC'd Kasabian's Debit Mastercard Priceless Music gig in Melbourne and earlier this year hosted the Proctor & Gamble Wella Awards. Yes, she can be corporate when she needs to be!

In 2011 JMAC represented Volkswagon at the International Motor Show, filmed an online mini-doco for Schkinny Maninni, hosted '40 Degrees' at RAW House with well-known New York chef Matthew Kenney and even MC'd for the Bloc Party DJ's.

JMAC is part of the radio team at Nova100. Casanova duties include MC'ing product launches, live crosses on air and attending some of the coolest events around the country, creating a vibe, living life Nova.

A proud ambassador for the charity ONE GIRL, this year JMAC took part in 'Do It In a Dress' all through October. The campaign collectively raising over $35,000 as much needed funds, which will be used to send girls in Africa to school for a year.
